LONDON VICTORIA – TRURO STATION – LONDON VICTORIA

2 NIGHTS

Day One: Cornwall Weekend featuring St Ives

Settle into your comfortable seat and admire the authentic art deco touches of your carriage, from the hand-polished marquetry to the gleaming brass. Soon your steward serves a refreshing Bellini cocktail and brunch at your table. Sit back and soak up the views through the window as Belmond British Pullman makes its way west. Later, a glass of champagne heralds a sumptuous three-course lunch accompanied by half a bottle of our sommelier's selected wine. On arrival at Truro Station, a coach awaits to take you to your hotel.

This evening, we invite you to an informal drinks reception followed by dinner at the hotel.

Day Two: Cornwall Weekend featuring St Ives

Saturday brings a full-day excursion exploring Cornwall's artistic legacy and stunning coastal views. Begin with a morning visit to Penlee House Gallery, set in a charming Italianate villa in Penzance. Inside you can admire a great many paintings by members of the Newlyn School, as well as archaeology, costume and photographic collections. Afterwards, savour a seafood lunch at The Goldophin Arms on Mount's Bay, a two-mile stretch of beach in the historic market town of Marazion. The panoramic restaurant perches right by the water's edge with breathtaking views of St Michael's Mount. Continue on to the pretty harbour town of St Ives, where you're free to explore at leisure. The art mecca of the South West, the town is home to Tate St Ives among other gems. If you visit the Barbara Hepworth Museum and Sculpture Garden, mention you're travelling with Belmond British Pullman and you'll gain complimentary entry. The coach returns to Falmouth in the late afternoon.

In the evening, please enjoy a table d'hôte dinner in the hotel restaurant.

Day Three: Cornwall Weekend featuring St Ives
