Important Information

TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is a condition of our accepting your booking that comprehensive travel insurance is in place for all travellers named on the booking from the date of confirming your booking to the date of return. The insurance should cover the total cost of your travel arrangements and all of your activities for the whole duration of your trip.

COST OF YOUR TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

The cost shown on our quote is based on the best prices applicable at the time of quoting and consequently will be subject to change until your booking is confirmed. Once your booking is confirmed the cost will not change unless under special circumstances. Our Booking Conditions show further information in this regard, see www.african-pride.co.uk.

DEPOSITS

Deposits are usually 15% of the total cost of your holiday, however, certain services require a higher deposit to secure the booking particularly at peak periods of travel. You or your travel agent will be advised of the required deposit at the time of booking. Deposits are non-refundable and subject to our Booking Conditions.

QUOTES AND CONFIRMATIONS

These will be sent to you based on the instructions and information received from you or your travel agent and will show the flight and ground arrangements that make up your itinerary along with the cost. They will include other important information e.g. passport, visa and health advice, local laws and customs, credit card and currency use, driving advice, electricity wattage and gratuities in addition to a range of other useful advice. It is important you read all this information carefully.

PASSPORT AND VISA REQUIREMENTS

Information relating to the passport and visa requirements will be included with your quote and confirmation and is based on British Citizens holding a 10year passport. Ensuring that your passport and visas are valid is your own responsibility and while advice is provided we cannot be held responsible if you are not able to travel as a result of the non-compliance of your passport or visa. Be aware that some countries require that two or three blank consecutive pages in your passport are available. Some countries now only issue visas via an online portal and cannot be obtained on arrival. The UK Passport Service may be contacted on www.gov.uk/browse/abroad/passports and links to various Embassies, High Commissions and Consulates are shown on our website www.african-pride.co.uk.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

The main health requirements for the destinations in your itinerary will be included in your quote and confirmation. Such information is for your guidance and you should consult with your GP or other medical authority to ascertain the latest requirements for each destination you are visiting. Should these arrangements change prior to travel we will endeavour to advise you or your travel agent but we cannot be held responsible for any omission or amendment to any health requirements as they can change without notice. Please refer to www.travelhealthpro.org.uk for the latest health information for the destinations you are visiting.

SAFETY

We take the safety of our clients very seriously. The Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) issues travel advice on destinations, which includes information on passports, visas, health, safety and security. It is important that you visit www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice before deciding to book and before you begin your holiday to ascertain the most recent advice of the FCDO and if relevant to you or anyone in your party. In certain parts of Africa, wild game roams freely. Every precaution is taken by the lodges to ensure your safety but you will usually be asked to sign a disclaimer on checking in and abide by their local rules and regulations. You should always take the advice from the accommodation you are staying in and abide by what they tell you. As anywhere, you should avoid displays of money and goods, particularly in towns and cities.

CHILDREN

We are very experienced in putting together holidays and safaris for families and children of all ages. Most accommodation allows for extra beds to sleep three, some will sleep four or more. Not all game-viewing areas allow children and we will be pleased to provide guidance and advice on the suitability of holiday types and accommodation for children of all ages.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

We will endeavour to assist and accommodate any special request you may have e.g. special dietary requirements, airport assistance, mobility restrictions etc. However, nothing will be guaranteed. Whenever possible, providing we are advised of such restrictions, we will endeavour to provide information relating to accessibility.

AIRLINE RESERVATIONS, TICKETS & CHECK-IN

Flight reservations are made in compliance with the airlines schedules at the time of booking and are subject to change. Should this occur we will make every effort to contact you or your travel agent and assist as per our Booking Conditions. Physical tickets are no longer issued and ticket numbers and airline booking references (PNR) are in your travel documents. Specific seat requests may be made on most airlines and usually attract a payment which should be made direct to the airline. Checking-in for your flights differs per airline so please check the airline's own website for full information on all aspects of your flight.

AIRPORT TAXES AND ADDITIONAL CHARGES

All airport taxes and additional charges as known at the time of booking are shown in the quote and confirmation. However, these can change at any time and should this happen we will try to advise you or your travel agent as soon as possible. Some taxes and charges need to be paid locally and are your responsibility. We will endeavour to advise you of these but cannot be held liable for any omissions or changes.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

Baggage allowance limits are usually strictly enforced and differ between airlines both internationally and domestically and by class of travel. Details of the latest information relating to the limits allowed will be supplied with your travel documents but should be checked further on the airline's own website shortly before you travel. Some flights within Africa and the Indian Ocean may be on light aircraft with usually lower limits in terms of size, weight and type of bag, which will be advised with your documents.

ASSISTANCE WHILST OVERSEAS

Should you require assistance while you are overseas, details of our local travel partners' and our own emergency UK contact numbers are included with your travel documents whereupon all efforts will be made to assist you as necessary.

FLIGHT DELAYS AND DENIED BOARDING

Should a delay to your flight occur, then arrangements for meals, accommodation etc. should be met by the airline, subject to their terms and conditions, which may be found on the airline's own website. Under the Denied Boarding, Cancellation and Delay Regulations you may be entitled to compensation from the airline, refer to www.caa.co.uk/passengers/ for further information.

ACCOMMODATION, CHECK-IN AND TOURS

Unless otherwise stated in your documentation, accommodation is usually in a twin or double bedded room with private facilities. Higher grade rooms are often available for which a supplement will apply. Check-in is usually from 15:00 with check-out between 10:00-12:00. For early arrivals and late departures, it is recommended that earlier or later arrangements be made, usually at a full night's charge, although this can sometimes be arranged locally for an additional charge. Tours and excursions are operated by our local partners with pick up times shown in your travel documents or advised locally.

ACCURACY

Every effort is taken to ensure the accuracy of the information. However, changes to such information can be made at any time and we reserve the right to make such changes after publication. As far as possible, the quote and travel documents will contain relevant information and where we are notified of such changes we will make every effort to advise you or your travel agent. However, should we not be able to do so we cannot be held liable for such changes. We accept no responsibility for information and advice provided by any third party websites or telephone numbers shown herein.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

We take our responsibilities seriously and comply with the relevant legislation relating to your privacy and data. Please refer to www.african-pride.co.uk and our Booking Conditions.

OUT OF DATE RANGE BOOKINGS

Airlines usually permit flights to be held 11 months prior to a proposed departure date whereas we are usually able to secure accommodation and other ground arrangements outside of this time limit. When necessary we will estimate the cost for your itinerary and confirm this to you once the flight cost is known. Please see our Booking Conditions for more information.
